

JACKETS AND CAPES

Fall Line Almost Complete.

There never was a garment made that was nearer the ideal Ladies' Jacket than the fall styles of 1939.

Short in length; plain in appearance; rich in material; substantial linings and above all, low in price. These combined will make this winter's wrap very popular.

W. L. MAIN'S CIRCUS.

The Great Aggregation Arrives in Salem.

The Street Parade Is Viewed by a Vast Multitude of People.

Early this morning it was noticeable that the usual large crowds on Salem's business streets were perceptibly swelled, and long before time for the street parade of the Walter L. Main circus, there was an absolute jam. The rains had probably produced considerable mud, and the hop picking exodus has taken thousands from our city, but the crowd to see this circus was simply immense.

About 11 o'clock the parade began and it was as fine a turn out of the kind as was ever in Salem. The horses are superb, the music excellent and the people who took part are a handsome appearing crowd.

The parade contained several features of special interest. Among these may be mentioned the automobile, which brought up the rear of the procession. This is the first horseless carriage that has made its appearance on the streets of Salem and attracted a great deal of attention. Walter L. Main, proprietor of the circus, and several members of his family were the occupants.

JEWISH NEW YEAR.

Some Information Regarding This Religious Holiday.

The day commencing last evening and ending this evening has been the Jewish New Year, and the season has been generally observed by that race in Salem. Rabbi Bloch of Portland, as reported in the Telegram gives the following information in regard to this religious anniversary.

"The Jewish year is a lunar year," said Dr. Bloch this morning, "and begins with the new moon. This evening begins the celebration of the New Year, or Rosh Hashanah, and opens the solemn season of penitence, culminating on the tenth day with the Atonement, and concluding with the feast of Tabernacle, beginning the 15th of Tishri. The celebration of the New Year is the traditional natal day of the Creation, and it is from this source that the religious ideas and observances are drawn. God is the Creator, and Ruler of the universe, and man the crown of creation. To the Israelite, this day is a summons to return unto God and to render an account of his life's career; a proclamation of peace and a feast of reunion. This is the mainspring of the solemnity of the feast, and the infallible cause of the universal observation and revival of the religious fervor in Israel."

HOTEL ARRIVALS.

WILLAMETTE.

J. Harman, San Francisco; John DeBreny, Detroit, Mich.; Geo. H. Wright, Boston, Mass.; Dell S. Lasher, W. S. Berdan, Harry McClanahan, J. A. Wadley, T. G. Greyson, Geo. W. Joseph, Graham Glass, Jr., Portland; L. B. Lindsay, Fair Grounds; M. Smith, City; Mrs. Lanky, Portland; D. J. Fitzgerald, Maine Circus; James Jordan, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Bradley, Tacoma Wash.; Wm. S. Kelton Bandon, T. O. Broadman, San Francisco.

Another Unfortunate.

Ambrose Blong, aged 56 years, of Stayton, who has been suffering with an acute attack of Bright's disease for sometime, and who had lately evinced a disposition to do himself harm, was brought to Salem yesterday by W. E. Thomas and E. C. Baker, two of his brother Odd Fellows, and Herman Schellberg, a relative by marriage.

Mr. Blong was examined by Dr. E. A. Pearce before Justice H. A. Johnson and committed to the asylum for treatment. Mr. Blong has lived at Stayton for several years and belonged to the Odd Fellows lodge, and when it became necessary he had the care of his brothers.

The Dock Work.

Four of the O. R. & N. carpenters, who have been at work on the extensive improvements at the O. R. & N. dock, went down to Portland this morning, leaving eight men to finish the work.

A large number of hop pickers came down on the early morning boat from up river points this morning. They are extremely disgusted with the Oregon mist.

Oregon Cheese.

P. McIntosh, of Tillamook, who manufactures more cheese than any other man in Northwest, speaking of the outlook in Tillamook county for a large production of cheese says:

"The spring and summer this year were not especially good, as the rains continued so late, and the weather was so cold that the grass was not given a chance to grow.

THE CORNER'S INQUEST.

Over the Body of Estella Flannery—Asylum Officers Exonerated.

Coroner Clough held an inquest last evening over the body of Estella Flannery, the girl whose suicide at the asylum was recorded in yesterday's JOURNAL. The jury was composed of the following citizens:

W. H. Savage, foreman; W. R. Beckman, Chas. H. Lane, A. F. McAtee, J. Leidinger, Jr., and S. H. Linton. After taking the testimony of the attendant and physician who had charge of her case, the jury found that the unfortunate girl had come to her death by taking carbolic acid with suicidal intent; no evidence showed where she obtained the acid, and the officers and attendants are exonerated from any blame.

The girl had no money, and no one with whom she was allowed to come in contact is permitted to have or procure drugs for a patient, yet she secured the poison and took her own life. Here was a ward of the state, accredited by the authorities with a reasonably sane mind, yet so badly affected in her mental make-up as to prefer a life within the walls of an insane asylum to a life at home with her mother, who came to take her home two years ago, but whose entreaties were unheeded by the unbalanced girl.

Such a girl, eccentric, fitful, nervous and changeable, is allowed the run of the institution, and though not given access to the medicine chests, procures a bottle of carbolic acid and commits suicide. Unfortunately the verdict does not make these facts plain, and on its face the matter appears in a bad light. It must be apparent that for a person of her known characteristics the young woman had too wide a freedom, either for her own good or that of the institution of which she was an inmate.

New York's Water Scandal.

Baltimore Sun.

There were millions in the Ramapo Water Company's scheme for supplying New York city with water it does not need, and the politicians would have extracted them but for a timely injunction which promises to block the execution of a contract between the city and the company. The Republican ring put through the state legislature a charter creating the company and authorizing an issue of stock. Shares have been distributed—doubtless "where they would do most good"—but "not a cent," according to the company's own official, "has been paid in." The stock was to be made valuable by a contract with New York city, which is controlled by a Democratic ring.

The Republican boss doubtless "saw" the Democratic boss, and it was said to be arranged to put the contract through the city board of public improvements. Had all gone well, a company at present with out assets would have got a 40-year contract involving payment by the city of $300,000,000 for what it does not want. The incident illustrates the non-partisan character of our latter-day politicians. Republican bosses are ready enough to combine with Democratic bosses to plunder the people. A Republican legislature prepares the way for an immense steal, and Democratic officials promptly undertake to consummate it, each party presumably getting big money out of the job. The moral of the affair seems to be that the government of New York, city and state, is in the hands of thieves.

HOPS

Generally in Good Condition and Picking Under Way.

The continued rain is making it decidedly bad for hop pickers and is having no good effect on the hops themselves. Where lice and mold exist in the yards the damp weather aggravates the disease. Fortunately the pests do not seem to be prevalent in many of the yards and damage therefrom will be comparatively slight.

In those yards where the vines were well cared for and spraying was done in time, the lice and mold are almost utterly absent, but where spraying was neglected until after the formation of the hop, the solution could not reach the vermin and they have multiplied without anything to check them.

Many yards commenced picking the first of this week, and the harvest will probably be on all around by Saturday.

MARION COUNTY MATTERS

Business Being Transacted at the Court House.

CIRCUIT COURT.

J. W. Thornburg has begun an attachment suit in Dept. No. 1, against Jacob Krebs and Jas. Becker, for $294, and attachment has been filed on the four-fifths interest of the defendants in a 20-acre hop yard being cultivated on the plaintiff's farm, at Gervais.

Lakeview has organized a fire department.

The Astoria business men are forming an association for the purpose of devising ways and means for increasing general trade of the city, and making itinerant peddlars pay something toward the support of the city government.

The potato crop in Klamath county will probably be shorter this year than last. As seed was scarce and sold for 2 cents last spring the farmers did not plant as many as usual, and with the heavy frosts that occurred the middle of Aug. all over the country, which killed or else set them back so they cannot ripen, they will bring a good price this fall.

The common council of the city of Dufur has made an ordinance prohibiting the keeping of billiard-rooms, pool-rooms and bowling alleys, and to prohibit the playing of games of cards or dice in public places except for amusement in hotels.

The plat for the new townsite of Shaniko, which is located in Cross Hollows, was filed in the county clerk's office at The Dalles Saturday. The new town will be in the near future, for a time at least, be the terminus of the Columbia Southern railway and bids fair to be a good-sized little city.

There is little doubt that Lake county will have many new people within its borders before the close of the coming year, 1900 says the Lakeview Examiner. Never before has this county been so advertised throughout the east and the Pacific coast as it is today. Hundreds of people, from Maine to Texas, have sent letters of inquiry regarding the climate, soil and opportunities generally to be found here.

Arrangements have been on foot for securing the removal from the Philippines and the interment in Corvallis of the remains of the late Lyman Kelsey. The matter has been in the hands of Police Judge Grefco, and was inaugurated by the Knights of Pythias order, of which the dead soldier was a member.

Word comes from Enterprise that the 16-year-old son of Mr. Weaver, of that place, accidentally killed himself the other day, says the Walla Walla News. It seems he blew into a double-barrel shotgun that was "not loaded." He was instantly killed.
